RECITALS

- (A) The Member of the Supervisory Board was appointed to the office of member of the Supervisory Board of the Company effective from [DATE OF ELECTION AS MEMBER OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD].
- (B) By this Agreement, the Parties regulate their rights and obligations arising from the performance of the office of member of the Supervisory Board of the Company.
- (C) In accordance with Section 59 of Act no. 90/2012 Sb. on business companies, as amended (the “Companies Act”), the relations between the Company and a member of its body are governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of Act no. 89/2012 Sb., Civil Code, as amended (the “Civil Code”), concerning mandate, unless otherwise stipulated in the agreement on performance of the office or by law.

1. Performance of the office of member of the Supervisory Board

- 1.1 The Member of the Supervisory Board undertakes to duly fulfil his obligations as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Company arising, or which will arise during the relevant period, from the generally binding legal regulations, in particular the Civil Code and the Companies Act, the Articles of Association of the Company, and this Agreement.
- 1.2 The Member of the Supervisory Board undertakes during performance of the office to comply with all obligations and restrictions relating to him or to his performance of the office under the Articles of Association of the Company, or in accordance with the binding resolutions or instructions of the general meeting of the Company (the “General Meeting”).
- 1.3 On the terms and subject to the conditions set out in this Agreement, the Member of the Supervisory Board (or jointly with other members of the Supervisory Board of the Company) is in particular required to:
 - (a) supervise the performance of the Board of Directors of the Company and the activities of the Company;

- (b) review the ordinary, extraordinary, consolidated, or interim financial statements and the proposal for distributing profit or covering losses, and submit his opinion to the General Meeting of the Company;
- (c) participate in the General Meeting of the Company;
- (d) convene the General Meeting if the Company has not appointed the Board of Directors or if the appointed Board of Directors has not fulfilled its obligations over the long term and if a member of the Board of Directors has not convened the General Meeting, or if convening the General Meeting is required by the interests of the Company, and propose any required measures;
- (e) prohibit the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, close persons or influenced or controlled persons from entering into an agreement with the Company if the agreement is not in the interest of the Company;
- (f) implement decisions duly adopted by the General Meeting of the Company that relate to the activities of the Supervisory Board of the Company.

1.4 The Member of the Supervisory Board will perform his obligations with due diligence and care (i.e. attentively and with the required knowledge), using all of his knowledge, and will be required to inform the Supervisory Board and the General Meeting in the cases set out in the Companies Act and/or the Civil Code of fulfilling his obligations.

1.5 The Member of the Supervisory Board undertakes to perform the office personally, conscientiously, duly and according to his best knowledge and capabilities. In particular, the Member of the Supervisory Board undertakes:

- (a) to promote the good reputation of the Company, its products and services and to use this good reputation exclusively for the benefit of the Company and not for his own benefit or that of a third party;
- (b) to improve his qualifications for performing the office and adhere to the principles of safety at the workplace, and to act in such a way as not to cause damage to health or property of the Company, its employees or third parties;
- (c) not to accept for oneself or anyone else any unauthorised benefit or advantage to the detriment of the Company.

2. Non-competition clause

2.1 The Member of the Supervisory Board undertakes for the duration of performing his office to comply with the non-competition clause pursuant to Section 451 of the Companies Act, conflict-of-interest rules pursuant to Section 54 et seq. of the Companies Act and pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Company.

2.2 At the time of signing this Agreement, the Member of the Supervisory Board submitted a list of companies (Annex 1 to this Agreement) in which he participates and at the same time declared in writing that his participation in those companies does not have the characteristics subject to ban on competition under Section 451 of the Companies Act. The Company acknowledges this declaration and declares that it does not consider the declared participation in companies referred to in the first sentence of this clause as competitive activity under Section 451 of the Companies Act.

2.3 The Member of the Supervisory Board agrees to inform the Company without delay if he starts to carry out an activity that may have the characteristics of prohibited competitive activity vis-à-vis the Company, even if it were to occur by a change of the way he participates in the companies listed in Annex 1 to this Agreement.

3. Confidentiality

3.1 The Member of the Supervisory Board is required to maintain confidentiality of information designated as trade secret within the Company or by applicable Czech law, and other matters the disclosure of which to third parties could cause damage to the Company or otherwise have a negative impact on the assets of the Company, its business, good reputation, or its products and services, or could lead to unjust enrichment by another party, unless the obligation to disclose such information or matters applies to the Member of the Supervisory Board under a legal regulation or enforceable decision of a government authority.

3.2 The confidentiality obligation under this Article 3 will continue even after termination of the performance of the office of Member of the Supervisory Board. After termination of performance of the office, the Member of the Supervisory Board is not entitled to disclose or use the information referred to in Article 3.1 above in any manner or to allow the disclosure or use of this information by third parties.

4. Benefits associated with the performance of office

4.1 For the performance of the office of a member of the Supervisory Board, the Member of the Supervisory Board is only entitled to the benefits specified in Articles 4.2 to 4.4 below.

4.2 Justified costs for travel and accommodation and other justified costs incurred by the Member of the Supervisory Board during the performance of his office will be reimbursed to the Member of the Supervisory Board in accordance with the internal regulations of the Company. For the purpose of reimbursing these costs, the place of performance of the office is understood to be the place of permanent residence of the Member of the Supervisory Board.

4.3 The Company will also provide to with the Member of the Supervisory Board the following insurance:

- (a) liability insurance for damage caused as a result of breach of obligations in the performance of the office of a Member of the Supervisory Board (so-called D&O insurance);
- (b) accident insurance for the risks of death as a result of an accident, permanent consequences of an accident, and permanent disability as a result of an accident;
- (c) travel insurance obtained for short-term business trips abroad related to the performance of office.

4.4 If the Company provides insurance to the Member of the Supervisory Board under Article 4.3 above, the basic remuneration of the Member of the Supervisory Board will be increased by compensatory remuneration in an amount such that the basic remuneration or annual bonus paid to the Member of the Supervisory Board after deduction of taxes and other mandatory payments is always paid in an amount in which it would be paid if the insurance under Article 4.3 above was not provided as non-pecuniary benefit to the Member of the Supervisory Board.

4.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that the entitlement of the Member of the Supervisory Board Any to compensation of USD 250,000 per year, which is paid to the Member of the Supervisory Board by Colt CZ Group North America, Inc. on the ground of the Member of the Supervisory Board serving as a member of the board of directors of Colt CZ Group North America, Inc., is not prejudiced or affected by the execution of this Agreement.

5. Term

5.1 This Agreement was entered into for the duration of the performance of the office of the Member of the Supervisory Board.

5.2 The period of performance of the office of the Member of Supervisory Board will also end:

- (a) upon recalling the Member of the Supervisory Board from his office by the General Meeting;
- (b) upon resignation of the Member of the Supervisory Board from the office;
- (c) on the day that the Member of the Supervisory Board no longer fulfils the conditions set out in the generally binding legal regulations for performance of the office of a member of the supervisory board, if not otherwise provided in these legal regulations.

- 5.3 If the duration of the performance of the office of the Member of the Supervisory Board is terminated in accordance with Article 5.2 of this Agreement, the Member of the Supervisory Board is entitled to a proportional part of his remuneration under Article 4.1 above which corresponds to the actual period of performance of his office.
- 5.4 In the event of termination of this Agreement for any reason, the Member of the Supervisory Board is required to refrain from any acts on behalf of the Company and is required to duly hand over his office. In this context, the Member of the Supervisory Board is required in particular to:
- (a) inform the Supervisory Board of all steps necessary in relation to terminating his obligations as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Company;
 - (b) return without undue delay all documents relating to the Company (e.g. agreements, accounting documents, correspondence, invoices, powers of attorney, etc.);
 - (c) return to the Company all items that he has obtained from the Company (or from third parties for the benefit of the Company) in relation to performance of the office.

6. Final provisions

- 6.1 The template of this Agreement was approved by the General Meeting on [DATE OF APPROVAL BY THE GENERAL MEETING] and comes into force and effect on 1 July 2023.
- 6.2 The Member of the Supervisory Board is not entitled to transfer any rights or obligations arising from this Agreement to a third party.
- 6.3 The Member of the Supervisory Board is fully responsible for any damage, costs and expenses that the Company incurs as a result of an intentional breach of this Agreement.
- 6.4 If any of the provisions of this Agreement is invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, the other provisions will remain valid and enforceable. The Parties undertake to replace any such invalid, unlawful or unenforceable provision with a valid and enforceable provision that has a similar legal interpretation.
- 6.5 This Agreement is deemed as the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the rights conferred under and the obligations arising from this Agreement, and after coming into effect, it replaces any previous agreements or arrangements, whether verbal or written.
- 6.6 Any amendments, variations or supplements to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties.
- 6.7 This Agreement is in accordance with the Company's Remuneration Policy.
- 6.8 This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Czech Republic.
- 6.9 This Agreement was drawn up in two (2) counterparts, each of which is a valid original. Each Party will receive one (1) original hereof.

The Parties hereby expressly declare that this Agreement is their free act and deed. In witness whereof, they attach their respective signatures below.
